

Medical Canvassing

At Rapid Care, our comprehensive medical canvassing is designed to provide the in-depth evidence you need to build winning cases - whether you're handling personal injury, medical malpractice, workers' compensation, or complex mass tort claims.

We offer tailored solutions to address your unique challenges:

Streamline the Location of Patient Records

We work with law firms to locate medical records from a wide range of facilities. Whether you need records for a personal injury case, workers' compensation claim, or other legal matters, we handle the search and outreach from start to finish.

Persistent Follow-Ups

We don't stop at submitting requests. Our team follows up with each facility by phone and email to expedite the identification and location of critical medical records, ensuring timely delivery of essential documents for your case.

Reduce Administrative Costs

We free your team to focus on higher-value clinical and operational priorities. This optimizes workflow efficiency and minimizes time/resources spent tracking down files. Additionally, we directly input the client's information into their system.

Customized Solutions for Every Case

Our services are customized to meet the specific needs of your case, ensuring no crucial detail is overlooked. We canvass any and all types of medical facilities, including hospitals, specialty clinics, and private practices.

Whether you're navigating personal injury, medical malpractice, workers' comp, or mass tort litigation, we'll help you uncover the hidden details that can make your case.
